About Springcourt

Attractive neo-Colonial style buildings with a textured stone finish are painted in a palette of classical pastel colours. Inside the rooms are spacious and airy, with an open-plan living space opening out onto a patio or balcony. Every kitchen is fitted out to a high standard with granite worktops and top-of-the-range kitchen appliances featuring brands like Smeg, Bosch and Westinghouse

Whether you buy an apartment or a villa, you'll enjoy all the comforts of home. Air conditioning comes as standard as well as ceiling fans in every room.

The residents' swimming pool and landscaped gardens are maintained all year round as part of the service agreement, which also includes buildings insurance, repairs and ongoing improvements. Other services can be arranged at additional cost including maid service, cleaning, laundry, dry cleaning and personal cook.

Location

"An excellent location, close to a wonderful concentration of restaurants, entertainments and fine beaches, adjacent to an inviting 9-hole golf course. A gold-star piece of real estate"

Keith Bell, Owner

Springcourt is a 20 minute stroll from the pristine Accra Beach in Rockley, Christchurch, on the South East coast, one of the island's most idyllic settings.

Springcourt also has excellent transport links, being just 15 minutes' drive to the airport and ten minutes to Bridgetown, the bustling capital of Barbados.

Set in a peaceful cul-de-sac next to the Rockley Resort Golf Course with the rolling hillsides behind, Springcourt is an oasis of peace and tranquility, yet on the doorstep you'll find a host of lively cafes, relaxed bars and upscale restaurants, giving you the best of all possible worlds.

"It's very peaceful but close to all necessary shops and good restaurants. Accra Beach is one of the nicest on the island – lovely and smooth and white. The other people are really friendly and the staff are very nice and always helpful."

Steven, long term resident tenant

It's easy to own a property in Barbados

There are no restrictions on foreign ownership of property in Barbados except for one condition: non-residents must obtain permission from Barbados' Central Bank. This is a simple formality and not difficult to obtain, but failing to do so will void your purchase. The Central Bank of Barbados also requires registration of all money brought into the country.

To reserve a property, simply fill in the Reservation Form and return it to 12 Docklands, Pirton Hertfordshire SG5 3QF UK with a $5,000 non refundable reservation fee. Cheques should be made payable to Helen Springer Business Account . This will secure the unit for you, and the reservation fee will be deducted from the price when you go on to purchase.

On agreement for sale, a deposit of 50% of the purchase price is payable, with the remainder on completion.

Discounts for higher deposits

You also have the option to pay a larger deposit and receive a reduction on the purchase price as follows:

- Pay 70% deposit and get 5% off the purchase price
- Pay 90% deposit and get 10% off the purchase price

What to do next

About Helen Springer – Director of Springsibs Inc, developers of Springcourt

Springcourt is the brainchild of Helen Springer ARICS. Helen was born in Barbados and studied in the UK to where she became a qualified Chartered Surveyor, and pursued her career.

For many years she dreamed of owning a holiday home on the Island, but it seemed an impossible goal as Barbados was the playground of the rich and famous.

While on holiday on the Island, she realized that there was a way to achieve all the luxury of a celebrity mansion without the millionaire price tag, simply by building on a smaller scale, close to the beach but without a beach frontage.

At last the dream of Barbados home ownership was within reach and Helen set to work on creating Springcourt. Phase one has been enormously popular, with all units sold, either as holiday homes or as investments yielding up to 8% a year. Phase two is now in construction and Helen is delighted that demand is just as strong for her unique vision of Barbados home ownership.
